Just come to hand, and to be SOLD at SAMUEL DELAP's Book and Stationary Store, in Chestnut, the corner of Third-street,

The following MEDICINES, viz.

THE Golden Medical Cephalic Snuff, which by long experience has been found an effectual remedy for most disorders of the head, to which it hardly ever fails giving immediate ease, and by frequent use prevents their return: It admirably opens and purges the head, strengthens the nerves, revives the spirits, and has a most grateful aromatic smell: It removes drowsiness, sleepiness and vapours, relieves dimness of the eyes, is excellent in curing recent deafness, and has been of great service in hysterical and paralytic complaints, and in restoring the memory when impaired by disorders of the head: It is proper for all persons who visit the sick, or go into unwholesome rooms, hot climates, or unhealthy places, as it fortifies the head against noxious exhalations and infectious air. Numbers of persons have experienced the happy effects of this Golden Medical Cephalic Snuff, and is prescribed by the most eminent oculists and aurists in Europe, in the course of their practice, as a capital medicine for the various disorders of the eyes and ears: Printed directions on each bottle, for the use of the above snuff, price 3s. --- May be had at the same place (price 3s. 9d. per box, and 3s. 9d. per bottle) the British Tooth Powder, and Tincture for the gums: It takes off all foulness from the teeth and gums, renders them very beautiful, perfectly fastens such as are loose, prevents their decaying, and entirely cures the scurvy, and all disorders of the gums.

The true Italian Pomade de Venus, whose excellent virtues are well known in the great world for preventing the hair from falling, preserving it in its pristine vigour and colour, and even in case of baldness it causes the hair to grow thick and strong (price 7s. 6d. per pot.)

The most violent tooth-ach cured in a few minutes without drawing, by an essence which gives immediate ease therein. By applying this essence outwardly it will remove all kinds of swelling in the cheeks or pain in the ears, and is an absolute cure for the head-ach if ever so violent: It likewise eases the rheumatic pains in any part of the body: It is so harmless, that it may at any time be made use of agreeable to the directions. This valuable essence is prepared and sold in bottles, at 7s. 6d. each, with particular directions in print for using it.

Doctor Van Helmont's Specific Pills for the fever and ague, price 7s. 6d. --- Dr. Hill's Essential Tincture of Golden Rod, a successful medicine now used for the gravel and stone, price 15s. --- Dr. Hill's essence of water Dock, for the scurvy, leprosy and all obstinate cutaneous disorders, price 10s. --- Turbington's Balsam --- Wine and Spirit Bitters --- Glauber Salts, Liqueurice Ball --- Cream of Tartar --- Anderson's Pills, &c. --- A neat Microscope. --- Also Books, Stationary, Watch-Papers and other Curiosities.

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons whom it may concern, That we, the subscribers, being owners of land on Pettie's Island (as said island is now part of the State of New-Jersey) intend to petition to the Legislature of said State, at their next sitting, to pass a law to enable the owners of the said Pettie's Island to erect and make a sufficient bank, and other water works, to prevent the tide from overflowing the same.

CAME to the plantation of HANS BOON, living in Darby township, Chester county, on the 8th of this instant October, a ferrel HORSE, branded with the letter T on the near shoulder, and the letter F on the near buttock, has a blaze in his face, and a short bob tail. The owner proving his property, and paying charges, may take him away.

The following most important Resolutions have been entered in to by the Delegates of the VOLUNTEERS in Ireland; and as they bear so near a resemblance to what first called forth the Spirit of America, we hold it indispensably requisite to give them to the public. The Hibernian womb of Patriotism appears to teem with some great event, which perhaps is not at a very distant day of delivery.

At a meeting of Delegates of Volunteer corps, held at Dungannon, 28th September, 1783, Colonel James Stewart, of the Tyrone regiment, in the Chair, the following Resolutions were all unanimously entered into:

1. RESOLVED unanimously, That Freedom is the indefeasible birth-right of Irishmen and Britons, derived from the author of their being; and of which, no power on earth, much less a delegated power, hath a right to deprive them.

2. Resolved unanimously, That they only are free, who are governed by no laws but those to which they assent, either by themselves in person, or by their representatives freely chosen, subject to the controul and frequently returning into the common mass of constituents.

3. Resolved unanimously, That the majority of our House of Commons is not chosen by the people, but returned by the mandate of Peers and Commoners, either for indigent boroughs, where scarcely any inhabitants exist; or considerable cities and towns where the elective franchise is vested in a few; who are thus suffered to place the highest trusts of society, against the interest and will of the many, in the hands of men, who seldom act as if they considered themselves accountable for their conduct to the people.

4. Resolved unanimously, That by the ancient constitution of Parliaments, elections for representatives were for centuries annual, and in many instances more frequent, and the exercise of suffrage among freemen universal.

5. Resolved unanimously, That every approach to those fundamental principles, tends to a renovation, not an innovation, in the constitution.

6. Resolved unanimously, That the elective franchise ought, of right, to extend to all those, and those only, who are likely to exercise it for the public good.

7. Resolved unanimously, That the present inadequate representation, and the long duration of parliaments, destroy that balance which, by our constitution, should subsist between the three estates of the Legislature, render the Commons House independent of the people, procure certain majorities in favour of every administration, and threaten either an absolute monarchy, or that still more odious government a tyrannical aristocracy.

8. Resolved therefore, That the present imperfect representation, and the long duration of parliaments, are unconstitutional and intolerable GRIEVANCES.

9. Resolved unanimously, That as the voice of the Commons of Ireland is no less necessary for every legislative purpose, than that of either the King or Lords, the people have a just and inherent right to correct the abuses of representation, whenever such abuses shall have so increased as to rob them of their constitutional share in their own government.

10. Resolved unanimously, That it is the interest of parliament itself to effect a substantial reform, as the very existence of that assembly must become precarious, when it shall lose the confidence of the people, to whom originally it owed its creation, and from whom, alone, its powers were derived.

11. Resolved unanimously, That we solemnly pledge ourselves to each other, and to our country, to seek a speedy and effectual redress of these our grievances, and to co-operate with our fellow-subjects in every exertion necessary to obtain it.

We call for the aid of every upright senator, of every man, whether in Ireland or Great-Britain, who bears or wishes to acquire the title of a Freeman.

12. Resolved unanimously, That we have attended with admiration to the noble, tho' hitherto ineffectual efforts, of those illustrious characters and virtuous citizens, who in England and Scotland strenuously labour to procure redress of similar grievances. May the examples of sister nations mutually animate the inhabitants of each to persevere with unremitting ardour, until the glorious labour be finally completed.

13. Resolved unanimously, That a committee (of five persons from each county) be now chosen by ballot, to represent this province in a Grand National Convention, to be held at noon in the Royal Exchange in the city of Dublin, on the 10th day of November next; to which we trust each of the other provinces will send Delegates, to digest and publish "a plan of parliamentary reform," to pursue such measures as may appear to them most likely to render it effectual—to adjourn from time to time, and convene provincial meetings, if found necessary.

The following gentlemen were accordingly elected, viz.
Antrim Col. O'Neil, Lieut. Col. Sharman, Col. Rowley, Capt. W. Todd Jones, Col. T. J. Jones.

Armagh Earl of Charlemont, Lieut. Col. Brownlow, Sir Capel Molyneux, Lieut. Col. Sir Walter Synott, Capt. James Dawson.
Cavan Lord Farnham, the Hon. J. J. Maxwell, Col. Patrick Savage, Capt. Gavin Hamilton.

Fermanagh Col. Irwine, Col. Sir Arthur Brooke, Capt. A. C. Hamilton, Jason Hazard, Esq; Capt. James Armstrong.

Londonderry Lord Bishop of Derry, Col. Rt. Hon. Thomas Connolly, Col. Rt. Hon. Edward Cary, Capt. Leckey, Capt. Ferguson, Capt. Ffr. Saunderson, Col. G. Montgomery, Capt. Henry Clements.

Down Col. A. Montgomery, Col. John Hamilton, Col. Alexander Stewart, Col. Robert McClinton, Lieut. Colonel C. Nesbit.

Down Col. Robert Stewart, Capt. Mat. Forde, jun. Major Crawford.

Monaghan Col. Ch. Powell Leslie, Col. Ffr. Lucas, Col. John Montgomery, Capt. William Forster, Col. James Hamilton.

Tyrone Col. Stewart, Lieut. Col. Montgomery, Col. James Alexander, Capt. Eccles, Lieut. Col. Charleston.

14. Resolved unanimously, That it be an instruction to said Committee, that the delegates from each county do prepare and carry with them to the National Convention, an account of all the cities, towns and boroughs in this province; the mode of election in such as at present return members; as near as may be the proportionate number of protestant and Roman Catholic inhabitants in each; and a conjecture of their comparative properties.

15. Resolved unanimously, That we are decided in opinion that the representatives of the people ought not in future to consent to any Bill of Supply for a longer term than twelve months, nor more than six months, until a complete redress of the aforesaid grievances be obtained.

A specific plan of Parliamentary reform being produced and read by the Committee of Correspondence:

Resolved unanimously, That said plan be referred to the consideration of the National Convention.

The address of the first regiment of the Irish brigade, to the Chairman of this association, on the 15th of February, 1782, being read:

Resolved unanimously, That this association entertain the most grateful sense of the approbation of that respectable body; that we rejoice in the accession of, and we will be happy in co-operating with such liberal and patriotic men, in effecting the complete liberty and happiness of the good people of this kingdom.

Resolved unanimously, That the thanks of this meeting be presented to Lieutenant Colonel Sharman, and the gentlemen of the Committee of Correspondence, for their great trouble in collecting information on a Parliamentary reform, and for their abilities and zeal in digesting matters for the meeting of this day.

Resolved unanimously, That we lament that unavoidable business of consequence prevented our late Chairman, Col. William Irwine, from attending this meeting, and that the thanks of this meeting be transmitted by our Secretary to Col. William Irwine, for his polite letter of excuse for his non-attendance this day.

Resolved unanimously, That the thanks of this meeting be presented to the Lord Bishop of Derry, for his attendance and assistance in the business of this day; for his warm attachment to the volunteer cause; and for proving himself the steady friend to the liberties of Ireland upon all occasions.

Resolved unanimously, That the sincere thanks of this meeting be returned to the inhabitants of Dungannon, for their very polite conduct, and to the Dungannon battalion, for their vigilant conduct when on guard this day.

Colonel Robert Stewart having taken the Chair.
Resolved unanimously, That the particular thanks of this meeting be presented to Colonel J. Stewart, for his very great propriety of conduct in the Chair.

[The following is inserted by Desire.]

STATE OF NEW-YORK.

A Law passed at Poughkeepsie, 12th July, 1782, entitled, "An Act relative to debts due to persons within the enemy's lines."

WHEREAS many of the inhabitants of this state, who have not remained within the enemy's power, and who were indebted to others who did so remain, are now threatened with suits, and have it not in their power to recover from those who are indebted to them, and remained within the power of the enemy.

Be it therefore enacted by the people of the state of New-York, represented in senate and assembly, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, that all suits and prosecutions for any debt arising on simple contract, bill single or penal, or any other obligation, mortgage, security or demand whatsoever, due by or from any person not within the enemy's power or lines, that has remained with, gone into, or has in consequence of any law of this state been sent within the enemy's power or lines, already commenced, or which hereafter may be commenced, shall be stayed until the legislature shall make further provision in the premises, any law to the contrary whatever.

And whereas it is just and reasonable, that provision should be made for the relief of such citizens of this state, who having received in payment of debts to them paper currency, which at the time of such payment was a legal tender, and which they might or right have paid, in discharge of any debts due by them, but which it was not in their power to pay to such of their creditors, as have remained with, gone into, or were sent within the enemy's lines, and which money has since the receipt thereof depreciated in their hands, and whereas it is impossible to apply one general rule to all the variety of cases which do or may arise.

Be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in every suit or prosecution, which shall be commenced after the legislature shall by law have declared that the necessity of staying such suits or prosecutions as aforesaid does no longer exist, by any person who may have remained with the enemy, gone into them, sent or to be sent as aforesaid unto them, against any person who has remained without the power of the enemy, it shall and may be lawful for the court in which such suit shall be commenced or prosecuted, and the court is hereby required, on motion of the defendant or his attorney, to appoint three or five referees, at the option of the court, to try the matter in controversy, and the defendant shall, and hereby is allowed to plead before such referees any special matter, and if it shall appear to the said referees, or the major part of them, that the special matter alleged and proved by the defendant is of such a nature, that in equity and good conscience abatement ought to be made from any sum or sums due by such defendant, the referees shall by majority of voices determine the quantum of such abatement, and having made their report and award in writing, shall return the same into court, and the court shall thereupon give judgment and order execution to issue in favour of the plaintiff for the sum so awarded to be due to the plaintiff. Provided that such execution shall not be levied, until the expiration of three years next after the enemy shall be expelled from, or shall have abandoned the city of New-York.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for every defendant to pay, in discharge of any debt so found due as aforesaid, to such plaintiff as aforesaid, certificates or notes signed by any commissioner of loans of the United States, according to the value thereof, as settled by the continental scale of depreciation, or certificates for money due on loan by this state, according to the value thereof ascertained by law.

And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall and may be lawful for any person now without the power of the enemy, being a debtor to any person now within the power of the enemy, at any time after the enemy shall be expelled from, or shall have abandoned the city of New-York, and that the legislature shall have by law declared that such suits as aforesaid shall be no longer stayed, to sue his creditors before any court of law in this state, to have a settlement and make payment, agreeable to the mode prescribed by this act; and if the creditors shall refuse to appear and come to trial within two terms next after such citation, he shall be, and hereby is declared to be barred and precluded from recovering his said debt, due or demand, or any part thereof.

Be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any subject or subjects of this state, not in the power or lines of the enemy, who are indebted by simple contract, bill single or penal, or any other obligation, mortgage, security or demand whatever, to any person or persons that have either remained with, gone into, or have in consequence of any law of this state been sent within the enemies power or lines, for such subjects of this state not in the power or lines of the enemy, so indebted, shall be and hereby are discharged from any interest which may have become due on such contract, bill, obligation, mortgage or securities, since the first day of January 1776, to the first day of January which shall follow next after the conclusion of the present war, any law, usage or custom to the contrary notwithstanding. Provided that nothing in this clause contained shall be deemed to operate as a discharge of any interest, which may have accrued on any such bill, obligation, mortgage, or other security executed since the said first day of January, 1776, provided nevertheless, that no person or persons shall be allowed the benefit of this act, unless he, she or they shall have first taken the oath of abjuration, and the oath of allegiance to this state, and shall obtain a certificate signed by two reputable and well affected freeholders of this state, one whereof shall be a judge of the inferior court of common pleas, of the county in which the person named in such certificate shall reside, certifying that he or she is well attached to the freedom and independence of the United States of America, and have taken an active and decided part therein. And provided farther, that this act shall not extend to any debt or debts contracted or made, or hereafter to be made for the use of the state, for the payment of which the faith thereof is pledged; and also provided farther, that nothing in this act contained shall be construed to extend to any person that heretofore hath been, now is, or hereafter shall be a prisoner with the enemy.

BOSTON, November 3.

By Captain Doubleday, from Jamaica, we received papers to the 27th of September, they contain nothing very material. Captain Doubleday informs, that two days before he sailed, an express arrived there from England with positive instructions to the Governor, prohibiting any further commerce with the United States of America, which the mercantile interest of that island were highly displeased with, as they were in future to be supplied with lumber only from the flourishing government of Nova-Scotia, and grain, cattle and horses, from Canada. Thus the tyrant of Little Britain, having eyes, sees not his own interest, and having no understanding, like Pharaoh of old, still hardening his heart against the subjects of his own little island, till the mete he means to measure to others shall return on his own head, well measured, pressed down and running over, when his own subjects will rejoice and say, Amen.

Extract of a letter from an American gentleman in London, to his friend in Boston, dated August 28, 1783.

"The writers in the public papers here draw all their resources from the unsettled state of our finances. Could we but once establish our national credit by permanent funds, we should entirely baffle all the venom and spite which are daily published. Nothing makes us appear more ridiculous, than suffering our money to be exported in remittances for goods; a prohibition in this instance would force these islands in particular into ship building; and make them the principal means towards promoting our manufactures, and raising the prices of all articles of exportation; which would not only be attended with the beneficial consequences of keeping the money among them; but would encourage the manufacturing of all articles for exports, promote the fishery, and make every other branch of business flourish. But taking our money for goods, and carrying it away in bulk, is so easy and convenient for foreigners, that no manufactures, or even our fishery, will ever be promoted by them. The American export has become a mere bye-word in London—even the scribblers in the papers laugh at our suffering our cash to be thus drained from us, when the national character of America is suffering, from our pretended inability to discharge our public arrears."

HARTFORD, November 4.

We hear that the lower house of the General Assembly of this State have, in the course of their sessions in October last, taken into consideration the petition from the adjourned Convention, holden at Middletown on the 30th of September last, and have drawn up a strong and spirited remonstrance to Congress against commutation, &c. They have also ordered circular letters on the same subject to be wrote and forwarded to the sister States.

We hear from Norwalk, that on Saturday night, the 18th of October last, in a terrible storm, a vessel was wrecked near Eaton's-Neck (Long-Island) the people were all saved except a lad; but what is most extraordinary and almost incredible; a woman fortunately made her escape on a hen coop which drifted on shore, on which she was delivered of a child; the child was dead, but it is said the woman is likely to do well.

NEW-LONDON, November 7.

Last Friday night a sloop, burthen about 40 tons, run on Narraganset-beach in a thunder squall: All we can learn from her is, that she is commanded by a French man, who says he sailed from France about three months ago. It is said he has a considerable sum in dollars and a quantity of household goods. He had his wife with him, who died just before they run ashore, and was buried on land. The cargo is saved.

Monday arrived here the brig Hancock, Capt. Hez. Perkins, from Amsterdum. He sailed from the Texel the 28th of August, but meeting with a gale of wind put into Deal, in the English channel, from whence he had 48 days passage.

The ship Intrepid, Capt. Curwin, and a brig Capt. Kemp, both belonging to Baltimore, left the Texel with Captain Perkins, the former run on Goodwin's sands, but got off and arrived at Ramsgate, something leaky, where she was repairing. There were 30 sail of Dutch men of war at the Texel when she sailed.

PHILADELPHIA, November 19.

Extract of a Letter from an American Lady in England to her Friend in this City, dated September 6, 1783.

"I sincerely congratulate you on the peace, and hope that an event so glorious to the United States may be rendered permanent and lasting, by a free, well-settled government, and a perfect unanimity among yourselves; that little private interests may always give way to public good; that all former party spirit and animosity may be done away, and every one strive who shall be the most forward in lending a helping hand to raise a fabric that will be the wonder and admiration of the world. You have certainly greater advantages than any other people ever had, as you have all the states and kingdoms of the earth before you, out of which I should suppose you may be enabled to form a complete system of legislation. I hope you will most nobly disappoint your Enemies, who are prophesying and enjoying the idea of cabals and commotions among yourselves, and are waiting with the most anxious solicitude for such an event to take place.—It was laughable enough to see what pleasure lighted up in the countenances of a certain description of people, on hearing of the little riot you had in the city of Philadelphia with the soldiery; they magnified it to the annihilation of Congress, and the entire destruction of the Commonwealth.—That they may be utterly disappointed in their hopes, and that you may shew as much virtue and public spirit in settling your government, as you did in destroying the shackles of tyranny, is my ardent wish.

"The god of war seems not yet to be fatiated with human gore; it's true, he has quitted the western hemisphere, to rage, most probably, with redoubled fury in the eastern: The Turks and Russians seem determined on hostilities, and are making great preparations to destroy each other; no doubt before this gets to hand the bloody scene will commence, and many a victim be sacrificed on the altar of cruelty and ambition. One would imagine that life was full enough of ills, that we need not take so much pains to make them greater.—But who shall say to ambition, stop; or to tyranny, go no further? The heart of man, as the Apollo justly describes it, is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked; and is it not daily within our observation, or at least so generally so (our Washington is a glorious exception) that when he is entrusted with power he makes use of it only to tyrannize over his fellow-creatures, nor stop at any thing till the decree of an all-wise Providence entrals him in his own snares, and there leaves him to the anguish of disappointment and a wounded conscience."

According to the last advices from Jersey, the final evacuation of the city of New-York is to take place To-morrow, when Sir Guy Carleton is to deliver up the government to the civil authority of the State, and Colonel Henry Jackson, with a regiment of continental troops, is to take possession on behalf of the American forces.—However, it is said, that the British troops who may unavoidably remain after that day, are to retire to Long-Island, where they will stay until vessels can be provided to carry them off.

The same accounts mention that his Excellency General Washington was daily expected to visit New-York, but in a private character.

Colonel Jackson is the gentleman who had the honor of taking possession of the city of Philadelphia, on the evacuation of it by Sir Henry Clinton.

We have the pleasure of informing our readers, that the mail mentioned in our last paper to have been carried off by some villain from Princeton, was a few days ago found by a negro boy in a meadow near that place. It does not appear that the fellow reaped any advantage from his roguery, as few or none of the letters were missing, but many of them wet and much abused, as it rained hard when he carried off the mail. The notes of the Treasurer of the United States were all recovered, and are now in the possession of that gentleman.

The Honorable the Council of Censors, now convened at the State-house in this city, have chosen the Honorable Frederick Augustus Muhlenberg, Esq; their President; and we hear John Rose, Esq; is appointed Secretary to that important Board.

We learn from Canada, and the frontiers of New-York, that the crops have entirely failed in those parts, owing entirely to an exceeding and uncommon wet season. In Canada the prospect is dreadful, and unless they receive seasonable and ample supplies of grain, &c. from other quarters of the continent, the depopulation of that province must inevitably be the consequence.

There is a garrison still at St. John's, in Canada, consisting of two British regiments, some of Sir John Johnston's corps, and other loyalists. There is also a small garrison at the Isle of Noix and Point au Fare, in Lake Champlain.

It is exceeding difficult for any person who has been considered as a friend to America, to transact or negotiate any kind of business in Canada; but on the contrary those who have been justly stigmatized as Tories and disaffected, have met with every aid and desired success. So that we find the subjects of Great-Britain still retain their ill grounded animosities and resentments against the Americans who have had the resolution to act honestly, and persevere in a good cause.

Canada is overstocked at present with solid coin, which is chiefly in the possession of the generous and hospitable peasants, the merchants and traders being all in a state of bankruptcy—their credit being merely nominal; the British agents there having stopped payment for near a twelve month past.

The ship Commerce, Capt. Bell, on his passage from London, on the 23d of October, in lat. 40. long. 53. spoke with the brig Marshall, Capt. Nathaniel Foulke, 8 weeks out from Amsterdam, for New-York, all well.

A few days since Major General Greene set off, by land, from this city for Newport.

The honorable testimony conferred on this gentleman by Congress, for his eminent services in the cause of his country, must afford sensible pleasure to those generous minds who wish ever to see modest merit meet with a suitable return.

By the United States in Congress assembled, Oct. 18, 1783.

Resolved, That two pieces of the field ordnance taken from the British army at the Cowpens, Augusta or Eutaw, be presented by the Commander in Chief of the armies of the United States, to Major General Greene, as a public testimonial of the wisdom, fortitude and military skill, which distinguished his command in the southern department, and of the eminent services which, amidst complicated difficulties and dangers, and against an enemy greatly superior in numbers, he has successfully performed for his country; and that a memorandum be engraved on the said pieces of ordnance, expressive of the substance of this resolution.

Resolved, That the Commander in Chief be informed, that Major General Greene hath the permission of Congress to visit his family at Rhode-Island.

Extract from the Minutes,
GEORGE BOND, Deputy Secretary.

N. B. The title is indisputable.

A SCHOOL,

KEPT by the subscriber, near Walnut-street, in Third-street, opposite Pear-street, where youth are taught the English language, according to Louth and Sherridan's grammar rules; mercantile arithmetic and book-keeping, according to Dowling's system, which is allowed to be the most accurate method now extant in Europe; also geography, Euclid's elements of geometry, trigonometry, &c. with their application to mathematics.

As the subscriber has been several years employed in the tuition of youth, and can produce satisfactory credentials for conduct and ability, and being determined to confine himself to a small number of pupils, he flatters himself it will prove very advantageous to gentlemen who intend their children for mercantile business, to commit them to his care; his method of instruction being adapted to real trade, without confining youth to that unnecessary prolixity which retards their progress, so much practised in public seminaries.

As the subscriber was regularly bred to mercantile business, and several years in the practical part of book-keeping, in capital houses of trade in Europe, he would perfect young men in that useful science, or would post books, and settle partnership or other accounts reasonable.

An Evening School for young men kept at said place, by the public's humble servant, GEORGE FITZ GERALD, § 3 w. c 3 m.

STRAYED or STOLEN from the subscriber, in Hatfield township, Philadelphia county, on Friday, the 31st October last, a dark brown HORSE, full 16 hands high, branded on the near shoulder (W) nine years old past, a natural pacer, has a large head, and is eat ham'd. Whoever secures said horse, so that the owner may get him again, shall receive SIX DOLLARS Reward, and reasonable charges, paid by MARTIN WEJERMAN, Nov. 6.

CAME to the place of the subscriber, some time ago, living in Lower Dublin township, a dark brown HORSE, between 8 and 9 years old, about 14 hands high, branded with the letters IL, has the two hind feet white, shod before and paces. The owner is desired to come, pay charges and take him away. DAVID SHNYDER.

N. B. The above horse was advertised in the German papers, but no owner has yet come.

TO BE SOLD,

A VALUABLE PLANTATION, in Fawn township, York county, near the Maryland line, containing about 400 acres, 316 of which are patented, the remainder under application, the whole is in excellent order, and divided into 2 farms; the largest is well improved, on which is a dwelling-house, kitchen, barn and stable, a good stone spring-house, wash and meat-house, a good apple and peach orchard, with many other kinds of fruit trees, about 14 acres of meadow which produces good grass, and much more may be made; on the other part is a log dwelling-house and kitchen, a barn, stables, &c. with a very good thriving orchard, and a never failing spring near the door; on this tract is 50 acres of meadow ground, some of which is ditched, and the soil equal to any in that part of the country; there are several grist and merchant mills near the above premises, also a Meeting-house, belonging to the people called Quakers, and several other places of worship. The above farms are well adapted for grazing and raising stock, which may be fattened in the summer season without expence. The above land will be sold together or separately as it may suit the purchasers. Possession may be immediately taken of the largest place, with the grain now in the ground. The other is rented until April next, and the tenant to have the benefit of the next crop, he paying to the landlord one third thereof. For terms of sale, apply to the subscriber, at Deer Creek, or to Levan Hopkins, near the premises. JOHN WILSON.
